PLOT TO GET ON THE FORCE.

very reluctantly.

He denied that any printed list of members of the Pequod Club was ever published, but Mr. Goff produced a little blue-covered book which was printed

In it.

He said that besides being treasurer of the Club he was a Port Warden of New York. The recording secretary was Benjamin Dale; the financial secretary Abe Lichtenstein, and the vice-presidents
Licht Reference of G. Springsteen.

Must Produce His Books.

Dale, he said, was employed in the Surrogate's office. As treasurer of the Club he paid the bills, and when asked by Mr. Goff if he would produce his accounts and check books he replied that he could not do that, as he had no authority to do so.

have the custody of them?"
but I can't take them away from ub without the permission of the of Directors." ard of Directors."
"How many directors are there, and mame them al...

Munzinger said positively that he could not bring the books.

"Well, we'll see if the State cannot compel yea to produce those books and accounts," said Mr. Goff, and another subpoena calling for the production of the books and papers in question was drawn up, and Munzinger was allowed to so.

day," said Mr. Goff, as the witness retired.

The next witness called was Serapio Arteaga, a Cuban, who said he opened a saloon in 1800 at 352 Eighth avenue.

"Did you ever have any dealings with the police?" inquired Mr. Jerome.

"Yes, I wanted to open a concert hall, but could not get a license from Mayor Grant, so I decided to run without one. One of my customers told me that if I went to see the Captain I could make arrangements to have a concert hall without a license, So I went to the station in West Thirty-seventh street and saw the Captain in his private office."

station in West Thirty-seventh street and saw the Captain in his private office."

"Who was the Captain?"

"I didn't know his name, but he was a big, thickset man with a black mustache and wore a big diamond."

"Wasn't it Capt. Price?"

"I told him I wanted a license to run my concert hall, and he Laid he could not get me one, but if I wanted to open I muss see his ward man, Wagner. Then I went away

"About two days afterwards Wagner came to my place and asked me to come out into the street. We had a conversation, Wagner said I could open the concert-hall if I would pay for it, and asked me how much I could pay.

"I told him I could not pay much, but couls give him $50 a month.

"That' all right, he said; 'you can open up right away."

"I opened the hall the next day and began giving concerts in my place. A few days afterwards Wagner came around again and I saw him in the hall. I had the $50 in my hand, and as we ghook hands I slipped the money late Wagner's hand."

"Was any one cise present?"

"Oh, no; Wagner took care of that," Arteaga said he paid no more money to Wagner, who came into his place frequently with the Captain.

"Was any one cise present?"

"Oh, no; Wagner took care of that," Arteaga said he paid no more money to Wagner, who came into his place frequently with the Captain.

"Who didn't you pay?"

"Because I could not make any money in the buriness. I told Wagner to who came into his place frequently with the Captain.

"Why didn't you pay?"

"Because I could not make any money in the buriness. I told Wagner to who came into his place frequently with the Captain.

"Why didn't you pay?"

"Because I could not make any money in the buriness. I told Wagner to the court."

"Oh the organization page taturalization tickets. My friends went to see thorther of John J. Ryan, to get naturalization thekets. My friends went to see the could not speak my friend and asked what they would get for binging in the vote of the Club.

"That 'unit new to the tickets, and then they got their papers. Many of the men thus a cell." Day, so they lacked me up in a cell." On cross-examination Arteaga said he was formerly wealthy, but lost his money in the Cuban war of 1858. He had been in the grocery, tobacco and liquor business at different times.

Flora Waiters, a thin, pale-faced young woman, with short, curly hair, was the next witness. She said she had formerly kept a cafe, with girl waiters, at 214 Sixth street, and before that at East Fourth street.

"Where do you live now?" asked Mr. Moss.

Moss, would rather not tell, because I

"I would rather not tell, because I have gone back to my work in a store, and might lose my place. I have a little boy six years old to support."

Mrs. Walters said that while she was keeping the cafe in Fourth street Ward Man. Hock came to her and said she must settle up. She had taken the place from a Mrs. Ritter, and sold wine, beer and liquors without a license.

"I knew how much it was, $15, because Mrs. Hitter told me what she paid. All I did was to give the money to Hock when he came in. Nothing was ever said to me. and I never got into any trouble. I paid Hock all the time I was in Fourth street and after I was in Sixth street, and kept open till last December, when Capt. Cross came into the precinct.

"There was great excitement among the cafe keepers when the police came around and told them that they must close up."

Says She Paid Hock.

"You always paid Hock."
"Yes. Sometimes he came to my house and other times he would send a stoolpigeon, and tell me to meet him near the Flith street station. At the house I gave the money to Hock in an envelope, but at the station I simply gave him the money in bills."
The witness said the stool-pigeon was a young man named "Michael," who afterwards kept a cafe, but who got into disfavor and had to go to Newark.
"What was done to this man?"
"His place was raided twice in a week."
"Why?"

"Why?"

Because he didn't settle up, I suppose. That was what every one said."

The witness said that she didn't think she was doing anything wrong in running a cafe, as she had no rooms in connection with her place. The girls only waited on the tables.

In some cafes there were lounges and Broadway, bet. 11th & 12th Sts.

If you do I'll arrest you the first chance i get.

"He also said to me, 'You are a squeater and a howler and I'll break your — head for you."

Jacobs said another policeman, whose name he did not know, also threatened him. Besides that, a friend of his came to him and told him that John J. Ryan, in the Tammany leader, wanted to see him, and that Ryan had said that if Jacobs mentioned his name in his testimony he would railroad him to jall.

"Is Ryan in court?"

thing."

"That night, or about 2 o'clock in the morning, a man named Dave Brandt arm or in the Twenty-sever the world him the Twenty-sever the same time with me.

"We all went over to the station to see Sergt. Ryan, who was at the desk. The Sergeant said to Brandt."

"I want you to see that Danny gets through all right and gets a percentage as near 10 as possible."

Any set of the wind and the flatem statement. He got the was a palue and the world the wind to the statement. He got me when many captains at the last election, and may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election, and may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election. And may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election. And may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election and may captain at the last election. And may captain at the last election and ma that, and he said I must close up. This was about two months after I paid him the $5.0."

"Did he say anything about selling out?"

"Yes: Wagner said it would be best for me to silfout, so a man owne around next day and I made a bargain with him. His name was Warren Lewis, He took possession immediately, and the next day the concert-hall was open and running in full blast again."

"You had a license to sell liquor?"

"Oh, yés."

"Do you know whether Lewis got a concert license?"

"I know he didn't."

Arteaga said the concert hall was run by Lewis till last January, when his place was raided.

He was tried at Special Sessions and acquitted on the testimony of Capt. Price.

The witness said he was arrested once for violating the Excise law before he opened his concert hall. He was taken to the station and was told he could go free If he would pay the sergeant some money.

"I didn't pay, so they locked me up in a cell."

On cross-examination Arteaga said he was formerly wealthy, but lost his money in the Cuban war of 1888. He had been in the grocery, tobacco and liquor business at different times.

Flora Waiters, a thin, pale-faced young woman, with short, curly hair, was the next witness. She said she hair

Paid to Get the Position.

"Dwyer was a messenger at Headquar-ters. Saunders then told me I must pay $50 down, and when I asked him what for he said that he had helped a lot of other people, who had gone back on him, and that he needed the money to use right away in paying for the doc-

"I paid him the $50; put it down on a

At Any Price.

You can get Neglige Shirts at any price you like, but maybe if you pay too little you won't like the shirts. That's poor economy.

Keep's Neglige Shirts

are not the lowest priced in the world, but they are the best. Every detail in their making has the right attention. They're the cheapest in Cheviot, $1, $1.50, $2, $2.50. Madras, $1.50. $2, $2.50. Fancy Silk, $3.75, $5.

for these the witness said the monthly charge was 130.

"Did you think the Captain could give you permission to sell liquor without a license?" asked Senator Bradley.

"I' Certainly, if I paid for it," said the witness.

"Did you ever keep a disorderly house?" No, sir."

The witness said she had to close up her place last Winter and had gone back to work again.

The next witness proved to be an interesting one. He was Morris Jacobs, a tailor, of 1737 Third avenue, Mr. Jacobs said he had lived in the Twenty-fifth Assembly District about eight years, and had been a member of the Tammany Hall General Committee.

Jacobs began his testimony by saying that since he received a subpoena from the Committee, Policeman Finnerty and the Committee, Policeman Finnerty and and Fourth street station had tried to intimidate him and prevent him from testifying before the Committee.

Says He Was Threntened.

Says He Was Threatened.

"Finnerty came into my store last night and left the other two outside," said Jacobs. "He said to me: I hear you are going before the Senate Committee. If you do I'll arrest you the first chance is get."

"He also said to me. You are a squealer and a howler and I'll break squealer and I'll break squealer and a howler and I'll break squealer and I'll break squealer and a howler and I'll break squealer and I name he did him that John J. Ryan, him. Besides that, a friend of his came to him and told him that John J. Ryan, the Tammany leader, wanted to see him, and that Ryan had said that if Jacobs mentioned his name in his testimony he would railroad him to Jail.

"Is Ryan in court?"

"Yes, he is sitting over there," said the witness, pointing to the Harlem Statesman. He also said that William A. Baumert, brother of the Alderman, was in the court yesterday watching things.

"He was told to watch me, too," said the witness.

Jacobs said that Ryan had promised him a position, and that was what his friend told him the leader wanted to see him about.

"He was told to match me, too," said the witness.

Jacobs said that Ryan had promised him a position, and that was what his friend told him the leader wanted to see him about.

"Have you had any dealings with the see he was so low down in the list the other time he tried. It would look susplesous."

"We all went over to the deak. In the control of the deak. The Sergeant said to Brandt. "I want you to see that Danny gets through all right and get a presentage as near 100 as possible.

"I can't promise that," said Brandt, either, because he was so low down in the list the other time he tried. It would look susplesous.

"We were to go down the next day to the civil-service examination, and Brandt came to me in the morning with Ryan and a man he introduced to me as George Harmon, but I didn't have the money and he got mad.

Objected to the Payments.

force.

He corroborated Jacobs's story, and said he went downtown with Brandt, Ryan and Jacobs on the day of the civil-service examination. The only examiner he remembered was H. W. Beardsley.

"I didn't know any of the examiners personally," said the witness, "but I went in with Brandt, and when the name of Morris Jacobs was called I answered and received the examination papers, in which I filled out answers to all the questions.

"Brandt did the same for Ryan. The examination was, entirely written and no oral questions were asked."

"Did you aver do that before, impersonate an applicant before the Civil-Service Board?"

"No that was the first time I ever did it. But I know that Brandt did that sort of thing very often; at least he told me so."

"Had you known Brandt long?"

told me so."
"Had you known Brandt long?"
"Not very. I used to see him around Police Headquarters a good deal."
"Were you to get anything for what you did that day?"
"Yes; I was promised $50, but I never got it."

got it."
"Who promised it to you?"
"Brandt."
"And when was he to get it?"
"Oh, I didn't bother myself about that so long as I was going to get the money."
said the witness.

said the witness.

"You engaged in this conspiracy to swindle Jacobs," said ex-Judge Ransom, "with Brandt and these other men?"

"N3, sir; there was no conspiracy."

"You didn't see any money paid or knew of any being paid, did you?"

knew of any being paid, did you?"

I never saw any money."

Barmstoff admitted that he had been arrested once and placed under $300 bonds for refusing to support his wife, and that he had once been arrested on the charge of beating his wife, but was discharged.

Curtis Demands a Hearing. As Barmstroff stepped down, Jacobs was recalled, but before he could be asked a question Mr. Goff held a short conversation with Chairman Lexow.

At its close the Chairman announced that the Committee would resume its hearings at 19.39 Tuesday morning, and declared the session adjourned until that time.

that time.

Ex-Judge Curtis immediately leaped to his feet and asked for permission to cross-examine the late witness before adjournment was taken.

"If we allowed everybody to cross-examine witnesses." said the Chair, "our session would be interminable."

"But." said Mr. Curtis, "there are occurring daily assaults upon reputable citizens by the most disreputable and abandaned set of people." I object." shouted Mr. Goff. "I obabandaned set of people."

"I object," shouted Mr. Goff. "I object to that kind of language."
Judge Curtis was permitted to explain that he did not necessarily refer to the proceedings of the Committee.

session," said Chairman Lexow, starting to rise. Rynn Aska to Be Heard.

Ryan Asks to Be Heard.

A short, broad-shouldered man pushed his way to the front and shouted: "I want to be heard."

"Who are you?" demanded the Chair.
"I am John J. Ryan, who has been dragged into this case falsely and unjustly," said the man.

"Rats!" came from a voice somewhere in the standing crowd, but no attention was paid to it.

He was not given time to speak further, as the Chair brought down, the gaval and arose. The others of the Committee, counsel and audience followed his example, and in a few moments the chamber was cleared.

PRICE TO BE TRIED MONDAY.

Must Then Tell the Police Board About Cambling in His Precinct. The trial of Police Captain James K. Price, of the West Thirty-seventh street station, charged with allowing a gambling-house to do business in his precinct, at 345 West Thirty-first street, was fixed for next Monday at 10.30 A. M. by the Police Board this afternoon. Police Captain Haughey was given twenty days vacation and an additional twenty days leave of absence without pay, on an application in which he alleged ill-health as the reason for the extension of time. It is not stated when the Captain intends to leave the city. Capt. Westervelt was also given twenty days vacation. Capt. Westery days' vacation.

SAYS HE ! OST $30 AT FARO.

issioner McClave passed a comfortable night and appeared a little stronger this morning. The at-tending physician said Mr. McClave's nerves were streadler and his appetite butter. The Commis-sioner sent for a barber this morning to share Yerkes Indicted for Periury. Nathaniel Yerkes was indicted by the Kings 5 he was arrested in the policy shop of George Otto, 131 Troutman street. He told the police bit he has leen laying there. He was called before the Grand Jury as a witness, but denied his former statements.

Maud Tremain, of 116 West Fifty-ninth street, was held in Yorkville Police Court this morning to answer for keeping a disorderly house. When the house was raided last night Mra Tremaine was found in a supposed 5. being held down by Luiu Ford and a lawver who said he was Zelwin R. Leavitt of 107 Montague street. Frocklyn. Leavitt defended the woman in court. He said he called at her place on business when she was taken ill.

FATAL MALPRACTICE CASE.

Maria Kempf's Death.

The Coroner's office was notified this forenoon of the death of Maria Kempf,

VICTIMS OF SNEAK-THIEVES.

Theatrical Man Loses Trinkets and a Broker Clothing.

James W. Noyes, of 58 West Ninetyhas reported to the police that a sneakthief entered his house last Tuesday and stole an overcoat and other articles of clothing. A man connected with Daly's Theatre, who lives in the same neighborhood, has been robbed of several hundred dollars' worth of goods.

Many other thefts have been committed in that vicinity lately, and one of the shrewdest of Central Office detectives has been detailed to search for the thieves

surprising that these imitations fail; and not surprising that they make still more popular the article on which the fraud is attempted. The mer BOY RIDER FATALLY HURT.

Thrown from a Horse, He Dies of the concession of rubble and the district lands made to John L. Walter that they make still more popular tha would never get through with its business.

Ex-Judge Curtis replied that the members of the Police Department were represented by Mr. Ransom, but that certain other public servants and private citizens were being attacked and were entitled to representative defense.

"You are admitting," said he, "all sorts of second and third-hand testimony and listening to all manner of venomous sentiments in a manner that is a violation of our laws."

"Don't you believe in the discretion of the American people to determine between the true and the false?" demanded Senator O'Connor.

"The American people," retorted Mr. Curtis, "are governed by sentiment, and in this case the newspapers are making that they make still more pople, that they make still more pople at the true and the false?" demands that is a violation of our laws."

Pea line—have placed Peatline on the too notch.

Beware of initiations and not surpr sing that they buse a Fractured Skull.

NEWARK, N. J., June 8.—Albert Bovet, thirteen years old, died yesterites of Pearline alone make its of Pearline alone make its of Pearline alone make its of Pearline alone make that is a violation of our laws."

"Don't you believe in the discretion of the American people to determine between the true and the false?" demanded Senator O'Connor.

"The American people," retorted Mr. Curtis, "are governed by sentiment, and in this case the newspapers are making the sentiment."

Pea line—have placed that they have to a fractured skull. He was horse-back riding on Tuesday, and the animal he was riding was frightened by a trolley car.

Bovet was thrown to the pavement.

Saturday Half-Holldays.

B. Altman & Co. are again first in the field, announcing the Saturday half-holldays, which they commenced Saturday, June 2, and will continue during the months of June, July, August and September. Their store is closed at noon on Saturday during the four months and the field and the fi that they make still more popular the article on which the fraud is attempted. The merits of Pearline alone make its sales increase, and the Flatlands Police Captain Has Constables Do His Duties.

Then He Kindly Shares the Fees with the Subpæna Servers.

Kings County Supervisors May Ac complish His Removal.

The Law Committee of the Kings County Board of Supervisors investigat ing the enormous bills of town consta station, charged with allowing a gambles to-day discovered some startling bling-house to do business in his prefacts in Flatlands, as a result of which Police Capt. Hendrickson may lose his position.

The bills under the Committee's consideration were those of Constable Richard McAvoy for $2,999.45, Constable Abra ham Remsen for $2,172.79 and Police Justice Ford for $2.47.55. The constables tes-tified before the Committee that the amount due them was mostly for servwith full cut jet and lace, finest quality Kersey Cloth. ing subpoenas.

This statement of the constables surprised the Committee, because it is supposed to be the duty of Capt. Hendrickson and his policemen to serve subpoenas and attend to all the criminal work of the town. latest style, lined throughout with finest quality satin and silk lining.

BOSTON GAMBLERS' PANIC.

Boston Gamblers' Panic.

Police Continue Their Raids, and Make Many Arrests.

(By Associated Press.)

BOSTON, June 8.—The police have created another panic among the gamblers in this city by a series of raids early this morning. Gambling houses at 27 Knapp street and 5 Kirkland street were raided and nine men arrested. A large amount of gambling paraphernalia was selzed.

Policy shops at 916 Tremont street and 796 Washington street were also visited and fourteen men arrested.

McClave on the Mend.

PORTCHESTER, N. Y., June 8.—Police Commissioner McClave passed a comfortable night and

COXEYITES DIE BY DROWNING

Up Twenty of Them.

(ily Associated Frees.)
BRIGHTON, Col., June 8.—The num BRIGHTON, Col., June 8.—The number of Coxeyites drowned in the attempt to navigate the Platte River cannot yet be told. The river was a raging torrent yesterday, and many boats were wrecked at the bridges.

Twenty-nine boats, containing 185 men, passed Henderson Island bridge. Only twenty with less than 100 men, reached Brighton. Some boats were deserted, the occupants taking to the road.

serted, the occupants taking to the road.

At the McKay bridge, everal men were drowned. At Henderson Island bridge, twenty-one men were in the water at one time, but were rescued with ropes by Ralph Lee and Louis Branter. The boat of one man from Utah, known as "Frenchy," has been recovered. Of one boat containing eight six are said to have been lost. The most of the bodies have been washed downstream. Alany of the Coxeyltes believe four-teen to twenty men were drowned. Many men are clinging to the trees along the river banks, and an order has been telegraphed to Denver for skiffs to take them off.

The Habitant was a ship of 1.619 tons

CHILD DRANK POISON.

rinal operation.

Mrs. Catharine Vettar was arrested on May 16, having been identified by Miss Kempf as the midwife who caused the premature birth of her child. Miss Kempf would not divulge the author of her trouble.

CHILD DRANK POISON.

Found the Bottle Containing While His Mother Was Out.

Frank Carlos, four years old, is St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsbur Frank Carlos, four years old, is in St. Catherine's Hospital, Williamsburg. suffering from the effects of poison, and there is only a faint chance of his rethere is only a faint chance of his recovery.

The child was left alone in a room of the house 75 Leonard street this morning while his mother went to a neighboring grocery.

In one corner of the room be found a bottle of carbolic acid, and managed to drink a quantity of it. He was found by Mrs. Carlos when she returned ten minutes later, but an ambulance surgeon, who was summoned, said he did not expect him to live until they could get him to the hospital.

Sitting on the Sill. William Whittaker, forty-five, of 145

Deutsch & Co

Fifth Avenue.

SATURDAY.

HIGH CLASS BARGAINS

Black Moire, trimmed

Reduced from $35 and $50.

Perilons Voyage.

rally give us special close prices.

Broadway and Bleecker St., and our tailor shops at 153, 155 and 157 Crosby St. are equipped with the most modern cloth-testing, cutting and tailoring machinery extant, and our cutters and tailors are the most intelligent and scientific that can be had. With such a combination of forces, it needs only your examination of our goods to convince you that we easily can and do sell the finest tailor-made simply impossible for any other concern to successfully compete with us.

OLD HERALD BUILDING, BROADWAY AND ANN ST.

500 Men's Suits

WAS ALMOST DISMANTLED.

the Bark Yosemite's Long and The British back Yosemite, Capt. Ballast, with a cargo of dynamite, arrived voyage.

March 20, in latitude 45.32, longitude 84.27, she encountered a severe west-March 20, in latitude 45.32, longitude 54.27, she encountered a severe westaouthwest to west gale, lasting fortyeight hours, during which she lost her mizzenmast and all gear attached. Her lifeboats were smashed and she was compelied to rig a jury mast.

May 29, in latitude 28.34, longitude 70.26, she encountered a heavy squall, during which she lost her inner and outer jibs, upper foretopsall, mizzenstaysall, maintopgallant staysail and foretopgallant sail.

March 31, in latitude 47.37, longitude
48, she passed the British ship Perslan
Empire, from Sydney for London, thirty-ve days out. April 20, latitude 19.42, longitude 25.17, she passed the British bark Inveresk, from Caleia

MET WITH MANY MISHAPS.

ton's Eventful Maiden Trip. The new oil tank steamer Washington nishaps on her maiden voyage. She wa mishaps on her maiden voyage. She was built by the Vulcan Company at Stellin, is 2.75 tons register and fitted with all modern improvements and appliances. While on her trial trip she can axround in the Baltic. After starting on her voyage to this port she ran axround April 7 on the Falster Bo Reef, in the Haltic damaging several plates in the ship's bottom. She was hailed off and proceeded to Hamburg, where repairs were made.

made.

On May 28, at 4 A. M., in latitude 46, longitude 25.30, during fine weather, one of the propeller blades dropped off, and at 4 P. M. of the same date she lost another blade of her propeller. The vessel proceeded at reduced speed and reached Sandy Hook at 1 A. M. to-lay.

The Washington is commanded by Capt. Dincklage, formerly of the Deutschland, and is consigned to Gustav Heye

SHIP HABITANT BURNED.

a Cargo from New York. (By Associated Press.)
MELBOURNE, Victoria, June 8.—Th British ship Habitant, which sailed from New York on Jan. 31 last for Melbourne, has been burned on the Yarra-Yarra River. She was completely gutted. Fortunately her cargo was landed before the fire broke out.

The Habitant was a ship of 1.619 tons register, and was built at Scott's Bay, N. S., in 1835. Her dimensions were: 225 feet long, 42 feet 7 inches beam, 24 feet deep. She hailed from Windsor, N. S.

SIX SEALERS MISSING.

News from Japan Raises Doubt as to Pheir Safety.

(By Associated Press.)
SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The latest news from the Japan coast is anything but encouraging to the sealers. In addition to the four vessels known to have been lost, it is reported that there are six other sealing schooners missing. They are the Mary H. Thomas, Alton, Battler, San Diego, Unga and the Kate and Ann. and Ann.
Not only have they not touched at Hakodate or Yokohama, but they have not been sighted by any of the vessels which have put in there. The missing sealers all salled from San Francisco.

carrying crews numbering 108 all.

Union street, Brooklyn, while sitting in All Got on the Fuerst Bismarck, Though Little Damage Was Done. Capt. Albers of the Hamburg-American liner Fuerst Bismarck, reported on Hospital as the result of a squeeze he KILLED BY A TRAIN.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

KILLED BY A TRAIN.

A Little Schoolgirl Meets with Death at Morristown.

MORRISTOWN, June 8.—Maggie Morristown.

MORRISTOWN, June 8.—Maggie Fitzgerald, aged six, was instantly killed this morning at the Madlson station by a train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western road.

The little girl was on her way to school, and was crossing the track, when Indisputable. Why spend $1 for a bottle of medicine for a complaint when one box of In consequence of the concession of rub-

THE VERY LATEST PERTUAL USED BY THE EUROPEAN

J. G. MOUSON & CO.

HOBILITY AND ARISTOCRACY (9)

We can afford to sell the finest clothes for less money than any other house, because we are the largest wholesale manufacturers of fine clothing in the world and buy our materials in such large quantities that the mills natu-

Our wholesale warehouse is corner

FOR EXAMPLE, WE PLACE ON SALE TO-DAY,

AT BOTH STORES,

STEWART BUILDING. BROADWAY AND CHAMBERS ST.

Made in latest styles, it and 4-button Cutaways, in blue and black serge, Hawthorne mixtures and Scotch cheviots. Not a suit in the lot but is exedlent retail value at $15.00. ALSO 100 making a complete semi-dress suit at $15 that retailers could not afford to sell for less than $25. AT BOTH STORES.

AND 100 PAIRS TROUSERS at $3.25.

BIERMANHEIDELBERG&Q OLD HERALD BUILDING. BROADWAY AND ANN ST.

Easiest of access from its nineteen stations of

Most reasonable, attractive home sites within

Five miles of Hudson River front opposite the alinades.

PARK HILL,

STEWART BUILDING, 280 BROADWAY.

OLIVER SUMNER TEALL. 205 Broadway, N. Y. City.

Cable Car and a Beer Truck. Michael Barstano is in Chambers Street

French Protest in Madagasear.

flly Associated Preus.i

ANTANARIVO. Madagascar, May 21.-

any auburb of New York.

4 minutes of City Hall.

STEWART BUILDING. BROADWAY AND CHAMBERS ST. Open Saturday Evening Until 9 O'Clock.

Real Estate. YONKERS.

Open Saturdays Until 10 P.M.

Real Estate

Palinades.
Lowest commutation of any suburb of New York.
Noted for the excellence of its public schools.
Noted for the excellence of its public schools.
No 600 population, has doubled in ten years.
The heatthleston, has doubled in ten years.
Exceptional manufactors was recilities.
Adjoins New York City on the morth
Its most heautiful suburbur the morth
Independent water supply.
Complete sewer system.
ACCLESS TO YONKERS.

Hackensack, N. J.

Flushing, Long Island.

J. R. Crawford, who lives at 28 Speacer place, Brooklyn, and conducts a large drug store at 1179 Fulton street, in that city, was assaulted at his residence

He was at his riore when they arrived, but was notified by his daughter, who told him that she thought they were burgiars. When Mr. Crawford went home and asked their business, the intruders knocked him down and kicked and brutally beat him. His assailests made their escape. The police think the men had plauned a robbery.

BIERMAN HEIDELBERG& CAM MEYER MEANS STANDARD OF MERIT.

6TH AVE., CORNER 20TH ST. TO-MORROW, SATURDAY.

will offer the Greatest Upportunity of the Season to intending buyers of

SUMMER FOOTWEAR

MISSES' RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES. Spring Heel, sizes 11 to 2, ⁵1.50.

Children's Russet Goat Button Shoes,

Spring Heel, sizes 6 1-2 to 10 1-2,

CHILD'S RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES. Light Spring Heel, sizes 3 to 8.

$1.00. INFANTS' RUSSET GOAT BUTTON SHOES.

> SIZES 1 TO 7. 75°.

BOYS' RUSSIAN CALP LACE SHOES. In All Sizes and Widths,

§1.50.

All of the above shoes are regular lines of this season's production and are warranted to prove satisfactors for wear and fit. fly children's ce partment is complete with all the necessities for children's footwear at prices astonishingly low.

I HAVE NO AGENCIES OR BRANCH

STORES, MY SHOES CANNOT BE PURCHASED OF ANY OTHER

A. J. CAMMEYER,

6th Ave., cor. 20th St.

WM. E. TAYLOR

"Vonkers Hapid Transit" trains leave 156th St.
Station. 9th Ava. "7." every half hour.
"N. Y. Cent. & H. R. R. R. " trains (35 in all) leave Grand Central Station at frequent intervals between 7.00 A. M. and 11.45 P. M.
St. "Danny Bay Boats" leave ft. Desbrosses St. at 8.50 and ft. of 22d St. at 3 A. M.
Str. "Frystenhi" leaves ft. Spring St. at 2.45
P. M., Saturdaya, 2.30 P. M.
"Str. "Crystenhi" leaves ft. Spring St. at 2.45
P. M., Saturdaya, 2.30 P. M.
"Str. "Crystenhi" leaves ft. Pranklin St. at 3
P. M. Sops at 22d St. 15 minutes later.
PAY YONKERS A VISIT.

Netween, and overlooking. New York City, and Yenkers. Fronting the Hudson filver and the Palisades. Complete in every appointment. De-veloped and for sale by the American Real Estate Investment Union Homes built for purchasers at Park Hill. Quit claim warranty ideed given to heirs if purchaser dies any time after first navment. A $10,000 home and $5.000 cash for $7.000.54, divided into annual or bi-monthly payments for 10 years. Higher or lower prices in same proportion. For further agricultural signity to ABANDONED THEIR VESSEL. NEARLY SQUEEZED TO DEATH WM. E. TAYLOR.

This elegant park is now being beautified with roads and gravel walks, and building sites can be obtained at prices ranging from $1.50 to $1.500, payable in monthly instalments. Within 5 minutes with of Murray Hill and Broadway stations on Lone Island Railmond. Title period. It can be eachied via 34th Street Ferry in 25 minutes and trains run at all bours of the day and might in-liming simplays. Yearly commutation. State Ferry may free passes to and from the property and further narrice are apply to owner. Walter TER MUNYA: 44 New 34. New York City also JOHN M. REID, 241 East 34th st., oity.

ATTACKED IN HIS HOME

Druggist Crawford Beaten by Fas Unknown Mes.

last Wednesday morning by four known men, who gained entrance to the